

Announcement Letter January 2014

Dear Brethren:

We greet you as beloved friends, acknowledging that you are the children of God, and being ever thankful for the chance to devote ourselves to your personal service. Because we truly believe that you are specially called out of this world by God for an auspicious purpose, we likewise believe that you are due the utmost respect and consideration. God forbid that we should misuse or harm one of God's dear little ones.

Regardless of your humble physical history in this world—and even though the world does not recognize your true value—you are the real focal point of all activity on this earth right now. Our spiritual enemy has done a good job of masking that fact, but the truth is, the work that each of you is doing to build spiritual character is the most important work being done on this planet at this very moment. That work is not making any news headlines. The deceived nations and peoples are consumed with everything they believe is so important. They strive with great energy to achieve their own goals. At this time of year especially, the world looks back on the previous calendar year to summarize the most notable headlines of the past twelve months. Those headlines typically include descriptions of wars and skirmishes, natural disasters, economic performances, political scandals, as well as sports achievements, celebrity revelations, and prognostications for the coming year. But nowhere in these analyses will you find coverage of the truly most vital events which have occurred.

What matters most is the hidden work God is doing through those who are training to become Kings and Priests for a new world government. How much do you recognize your own vital importance in that geopolitical landscape?

If you are finding it hard to get excited about that future, weighed down more in mind by your worldly problems, it may be a sign that you are not focused properly. If you are discouraged, uninspired, depressed, and seemingly just going through the motions, it may be an indication that you are not seeing the forest for the trees. Are you grasping to preserve physical life, caught up in the cares of this world? Are you "unfulfilled" because you do not have results in this life that you really desire? No matter what your current physical burdens may be, they are the catalysts God has allowed to help you produce spiritual character. It is the creation of that godly orientation in us which is so vital. There is nothing else more important. Do you see that? Do you really get it? Or by your choices, are you proving that you are really just a religious hobbyist? The successful are those who have the vision of the Kingdom of God squarely before them and are investing in that vision daily through sacrifice.

May God grant each one of you to grasp your own very great worth in His divine plan.
