

Announcement Letter October 2014

Dear Brethren:

Many of you may not receive this letter by regular mail until after you return from the Feast of Tabernacles, but we wanted to provide it to you nonetheless to maintain that critical contact with our scattered brethren around the world. You are all most precious to us, because you are precious to God who called you to this way of life. Because of who you are in His glorious plan, you deserve our complete devotion and our best efforts to aid your spiritual development in His loving care. We pray that you all might remain steadfast and hold to the faith once delivered in spite of the many pressures in this world seeking to discourage and to intimidate us into compromise.

This month we are releasing again a letter originally written to the church for October 1986 by Mr. Raymond Cole. The spiritual principles are timeless, and hopefully you will find just as much value in them today as when they were first inspired by God through Mr. Cole.

May you all be the recipients of God's special favor, and may you ever keep the vision of that coming Kingdom of God in the forefronts of your minds.

New Moon

The new moon, Heshvan (eighth month), begins Friday, October 24. The new moon day is Sabbath, October 25.
